Holy and immortal
Have mercy on us.

who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Affirmation of Faith

We are not alone, we live in God's world.
We believe in God:
Who has created and is creating.
Who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us, we are not alone.
Thanks be to God.

Prayers of the People:

The Peace

OFF. hymn #500 cp "Sister, let me be your servant"

Prayer over the Gifts:

God of steadfast love, may our offering this day, by the power of your Holy Spirit, renew us for your service. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

Celebrant: May God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to God.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Holy One.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, O God, for you have brought forth bread from the earth.

Blessed are you, O God, for you have created the fruit of the vine.

In the beginning you watered the earth that man and woman might have food and drink.

You gave your servant Sarah bread to strengthen her family on their journey, and wine to make them glad.

You called Moses and his people out of bondage and refreshed them with food in the wilderness.

You gave Mary and Jesus their daily bread to share.

And here at your table you offer us bread and wine for the journey to nourish us as sons and daughters.

And so with all our sisters and brothers, before us and beside us, we praise you from our hearts for your unending greatness.

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest. (Gordon Light copyright)

Celebrant: Among friends, gathered round a table, Jesus took bread,

And having blessed it,

he broke the bread

and gave it to his disciples, saying,

“This is my body which is given for you.”

In the same way he took wine, and, having given thanks for it,

he poured it out

and gave the cup to his disciples, saying,

“This cup is the new relationship with God, sealed with my blood.

Take this and share it.

I shall drink wine with you next in the coming kingdom of God”

So now, following Jesus example,

we take this bread and this wine;

the ordinary things of the world through which

God will bless us.

and, as Jesus offered thanks for the gifts of the earth,

let us also celebrate God’s goodness.

Lord Jesus Christ,

present with us now,

as we do in this place what you did in an upstairs room, breathe your Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine,

that they may be heaven’s food and drink for us,

renewing, sustaining and making us whole,

and that we may be your body on earth,

loving and caring in the world.

Amen.
